Purpose and Vision

We love
because He first loved us!
1 John 4:19

Pastor's Message

This month is an important month in the life of Peace: the end of a year and the beginning of another with the Congregations Annual Meeting. My prayer is that all will pray before voting, hear from Heaven, and follow God's direction.

I have been Interim Pastor at Peace now for eighteen months. I have been blessed by every one of the members and by the leadership. We have seen changes and challenges. Old things pass, and new things come. Nothing ever stays the same. That is why we depend on God to bring us through. We cannot see the future. Even though we make plans, we have to adjust the direction occasionally. The most significant thing is what is the goal and where is the finish line? I keep asking this question of different people in the congregation and the council.

As Interim Pastor, I cannot set a Vision for the congregation; I can only serve at the pleasure of the council. I can make suggestions. My function is to keep the church moving and fix some things which need to be repaired or adjusted in preparation for a new Pastor. I have shared the Vision the Lord has given me regarding the Tapestry: it involves Business, Education, Healthcare, Social Enterprise (Social Services) and the Family. These are non-exclusive to all churches and congregations.

God has shown me that Peace has a separate but similar call with an indirect relationship. Peace is to be an Education Center for the Lutheran Faith, a model for other Lutheran congregations to follow. From the beginning of Peace Lutheran Church, it was an evangelistic ministry to reach and build the Lutheran communities in Brevard and beyond. I do not think that vision or call has changed. Exactly how this is to be accomplished is dependent on leaders in the congregation catching that vision and working to complete it.

My call is to the community or all of Brevard and beyond, a task of which I can only depend on God daily bases for Him to accomplish. I will be at Peace for a season, because of the Tapestry Christian College and Academy classes that will hold at Peace.

For the future of the church, I believe the members of Peace should pray daily, seek to hear God's voice and direction and obey what you hear. When the Bible says "He will not give you more than you can handle," I'm paraphrasing; He means a daily task for us to accomplish or the work we are called to complete every day. We all have work to do: it is God's work we are doing with Him to build His Kingdom on Earth as it is in heaven. The future is bright with opportunities and great goals God wants to accomplish through you and me.

My call is to the community or all of Brevard and beyond, a task of which I can only depend on God daily bases for Him to accomplish. I will be at Peace for a season, because of the Tapestry Christian College and Academy classes that will hold at Peace.

Pray and Obey,
Pastor Paul

The LORD brought Abram outside and said,
 “Look at the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to count them.
 So shall your descendants be.”
 Genesis 15:5

Dear Friends of the Covenant,

As we begin the season of Lent this month, we prepare ourselves for a journey once more; a journey with Christ that takes us from the source waters of baptism to the foot of the cross. What will we steer by along the way? Who will be our guide during these 40 days? What else can guide us as we take up the Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving?

Brother Malcolm once addressed this question in response to a query posed by his barber Paul. “How should an ordinary person like me pray?,” Paul asked. In response, Luther wrote A Simple Way To Pray, encouraging Christians to pray in their own words rather than reciting prayers they had memorized, and to trust the Holy Spirit to guide them. Though Christians nowadays have more experience with personal prayer than the men and women of Luther’s day, we can still sometimes feel uncomfortable or

- ◆ inadequate in our praying. Luther offers us a simple way forward:
- ◆ Start with a scripture text or hymn, wrote Luther, and read it four ways.
- ◆ Read it as a schoolbook, reflecting upon what God is teaching you.
- ◆ Read it as a song or praise book, giving thanks to God for the gifts God give or bring to your awareness.
- ◆ Read it as a penitential book, confessing your sins, your needs, and your weaknesses as they are reveled to you.
- ◆ Turn the words into a short prayer you may speak to God.

There are no “right” or “wrong” prayers in this approach. Luther’s core conviction was that the Scriptures are not intended to fill our heads with interesting ideas, but to bring the active power of God’s Word into our lives. Perhaps this is where we can begin our own Lenten journey.

Whatever other practices might guide our feet, we can also take our cue from the Genesis 15 above. Years have passed since Abram first heard God’s word of promise, “you will have an heir”, yet he and Sarai remain childless. In a vision God visits Abram to reassure him, but Abram wants something more. So God invites Abram out of his tent and tells him to look up at the stars. “Count them, if you can manage, God says. So shall your descendants be.” Beholding those stars, Abram is struck by the enormity and sweep of God’s promise with is for him and beyond him. And trust finds a nesting place in his heart once more. On this Lenten journey we do not place our trust in our ability to successfully follow disciplines or acquire good habits, though are helpful things to do.

Our invitation is always and forever to trust that what God promises, God will deliver. Those stars are a confirmation of that promise, so keep your head up.

Spreading Trust in Him,
 Pastor Curt

Treasurer's Report

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ, here at Peace Lutheran,

I am writing to you today as your new Treasurer. Four months ago, I told Don Hoffman I didn't want the job, but when no one else volunteered, I answered "Here I am, Lord." I've spoken with the church council and was assured no one else was interested in the job. If that is not true, please speak to Steve Cotton immediately.

With the reassurance and support of Don Hoffman, the affirmation of the church council, and with the grace of God, I will be committed to do the very best I can do for Peace Lutheran Church. Will I make mistakes? I'm human. I will owe up to any mistakes I make and solve them to the best of my ability.

I pledge to abide by the Church Constitution and use the Audit Review that was recently prepared by Robert Ritter and Richard Dixon as a guide to improve accountability. In that vein, all receipts that are offered to the treasurer for reimbursement, should be accompanied by an expense report that is available in the church office.

I have never worried about Peace Lutheran surviving and thriving. With your help, support and prayers we can continue to give all glory, honor and praise to God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

In His name,

Faye Schill
Treasurer

Call Committee Update

As of the due date for submission of Olive Branch articles, the call committee has narrowed our search to two (2) highly qualified candidates who are currently pastoring at mid-sized LCMC churches. We will prayerfully select a final candidate, conduct a final background check, and expect to recommend this candidate to the PLC council and congregation by the time this newsletter is published.

The call process for our church has been long and difficult, ultimately involving 10 different call committee members and almost 100 potential candidates. We believe that God has graced us with an experienced, passionate man of God who has a specific calling to Peace Lutheran Church. We look forward to unity and new beginnings as we welcome a new senior pastor.

We encourage congregation members wanting to understand more about the call process to visit the LCMC website (www.lcmc.net).

We Learn

EDUCATION

Children's Church Grades K-6

This month in Children's Church we will be learning about how Jesus showed his love by actions and what we can do to show our love to others. We will be using the scriptures below as our themes and activity guide.

February 4, 2018      Jesus Shows His Love by Actions      Mark 1: 32-34

February 11, 2018      On the Mountain Top      Mark 9: 2-9

Lenten Season begins on Wednesday, February 14th, 2018. How befitting that the Lenten season begins on Valentines Day. May we use the lessons that Jesus has taught us about love to share with others. Our February Lenten lessons and activities will focus on the following scriptures.

February 18, 2018      Make Your Father Proud      Mark 1: 9-11

February 25, 2018      Playing for Keeps      Mark 8: 34-36

Pastor Rosbury will be sharing more information about our Lenten Bible Study on Revelation. Look for more information on our Lenten activities in our Sunday bulletin: Words of Peace.

We hope and pray for younger youth and families to join us at Peace Lutheran. The attendance at Children's Church has been 0-3 students this year. Our Confirmation class has had seven students that are preparing for their Confirmation this year. The Youth Group has been fluctuating in numbers, but they are finding direction as to future activities and topics of interest relating to the Bible. The adult Sunday School continues to meet on Sunday mornings and welcomes more members to join them at 10:10A.M. in Fellowship Hall. We appreciate your prayers for our youth and Peace Lutheran Church.

Respectfully submitted,
Henrietta Pellecchia, Jack Wilson, Richard Dixon, Carolyn Richard, Joy McVay, Pastor Paul Rosbury

This month's Youth Connect Message:

Parent Resource on Youth Culture

Resources for Parents

This month we thought we would highlight an online organization that has several good resources for parents. It is called AXIS. You can go to their main site here: <https://axis.org/>

They have a weekly email resource called The Cultural Translator that looks at important trends in youth culture. Here is a link to the last one that had some of the top media trends and likes of the year for teens. Cultural Translator

They also have a podcast that has some interesting topics about the life of teenagers. Go to this link in ITUNES: Axis Podcast

Finally, they have a resource called Parent Guides that take an interactive look at important issues that face teenagers and families. These can be purchased individually or in a unit format. Although I have not viewed these in-depth yet, they look like quality resources. Go here to look at the options. Parent Guides

If you use the resource and enjoy it, let us know!

In His love,

Paul Shwiner / Pastor Curt

Did you know? Instead of writing multiple checks for individual contributions like the Children's Hunger Project, the Food Pantry, etc., you only have to write one check. Simply designate the breakdown of your giving in the check's memo area or on the envelope itself. "FP" for Food Pantry, "CHP" for Children's Hunger Project, and so on. Thank you for your contributions!

DONATE YOUR GLASSES AND HEARING AIDS!

If you have old glasses or hearing aids that you do not use any longer, please bring them to the Narthex. There is a recycle box from the Lions Club on the table!

Calling & Caring Ministry

Our team visits people who are in the hospital, nursing homes, and who are homebound. The rewards that we all receive are much greater than what we give.

Please prayerfully consider joining our team, especially for the Summer months, since two couples go up North to visit their families. Contact the church office or call Terry Neumann if you can give a little of your time to the sick and lonely.

Our Food Pantry is always in need of donations of either food or financial donations to support this much needed ministry. Our community is flooded with people looking for help, and we are grateful that as a church, we can help meet the need, anyway we can. Your generous donations will allow us to continue to help them and together, we can see our community get stronger!

Our pantry is open on: Tuesday's—9AM -11AM and Thursday's—5PM -7PM. We service zip codes 32905 and 32907 only at this time.

*Please note: We no longer need to save Egg Cartons for the food pantry. We are no longer getting eggs from the warehouse at this time.
