Pastoral Message

WHAT DIRECTION ARE WE GOING?

The second month of the year is here already…February!! Lent and Easter is coming so fast. Are you ready? It won’t be long: Spring, Summer, Fall and then another year will have gone before we know it. Where does Peace want to be 2018? Where does God want Peace Lutheran to be? The annual meeting is coming up this month, and it’s a time for reflection and looking forward.

My personal goals for Peace Lutheran are that we are able to prepare and set in order for a new Sr. Pastor to be able to easily fit in and enhance the spiritual flow in the congregation, to build on the foundations for growth both spiritually and numerically.

As an Evangelist or from an evangelistic perspective, spreading the Gospel is the key to building the Kingdom of God and the out flow of that is that Peace Lutheran and other congregations will have more people to disciple. The great commission and the great commandment go hand in hand. Matthew 28:19-20 and Matthew 22:36-40.

Matthew 28:19-20 (NKJV)
“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Amen.

Matthew 22:36-40 (NKJV)
“Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?” Jesus said to him, “‘You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

Here is the outline; Love God and Love your neighbor. Make disciples, Baptize, and teach them to observe.

Our congregation is on the front lines of spreading the Good News and now is the time for Action. Remember “You cannot steer a boat, unless it is moving.” It is the same with the Church - it must be moving or headed somewhere for it to be directed.

Blessings,

Pastor Paul
It's the season of Epiphany, a time of illuminating discovery, of realizing the meaning of something.

Is it just my imagination or have we really become more self-absorbed over the past decades? Look at the progression for magazines. In the 1950s, we had Life magazine, which pretty much covered everything around us. In the 1960s, we narrowed that scope down to People. We weren't too concerned about other forms of life, just our own. In the 1970s we had US Magazine. Not them. It's all about us. In the 1980s, we specialized. We wanted our uniqueness featured so we started buying Teen magazine, Active Living, and women's and men's magazines. In the 1990s, we grew tired of those in our group. We wanted something more fascinating and exciting so we began reading Self magazine — what a great name! And beginning with the 2006 Time magazine, we have narrowed that scope even further — me. It's all about me. I'm the one who ought to be celebrated, affirmed, and awarded. Do you know what I'm talking about? I'm referring to 2017 Time magazine's "Person of the Year" — you! You are the person of the year. Each year, Time magazine selects a person of the year who has made the greatest impact during the previous year. And that person is you! Did you see it coming? Did you guess it? Of course not, though secretly you knew you always deserved it. Congratulations!

So when Time selected you as the person of the year, from their perspective, you should feel very flattered. You beat out all the competition. Time wrote this: "... who actually sits down after a long day at work and says, "I'm not going to watch Lost tonight. I'm going to turn on my computer and make a movie starring my pet iguana?" I'm going to mash up 50 Cent's vocals with Queen's instrumentals? I'm going to blog about my state of mind or the state of the nation or the steak-frites at the new bistro down the street?" Who has the time and that energy and that passion?

The answer is, you do. And for seizing the reins of the global media, for founding and framing the new digital democracy, for working for nothing and beating the pros at their own game, Time's Person of the Year for 2006 is you.

In retrospect, we should have guessed it. After all, we live in a world that's all about you — your desires, your wants, your needs. I no longer have to buy a CD for the one or two songs that I like. I can create my own playlist on my own iPod. I no longer have to put up with one movie that CBS plays on Sunday night — commercials and all. I no longer have to mess with malls, people, clerks, post offices, grocery stores — I can shop online. Because after all, I am the person of the year.

From MySpace to Blogs to YouTube, it's all about me. Really, when did we get to the point of this inflated ego to think that my face, my thoughts, my videos, my pictures are so interesting, so unique, that you should really check out my website? When did we get to the point that we feel so indispensable that we can interrupt a lunch with a friend to talk to someone else on the phone — and say nothing at all? I've got a pastor friend who does campus ministry and has told me that in the past ten years he has seen a dramatic change on campus. Ten years ago, he could walk the campus, make eye contact, say, "Hi," or chat with a student. Today, no one is talking. They are not even making eye contact. They are listening, watching, or talking — alone and plugged in, alone with these "weapons of mass distraction."

Now, despite my ranting and raving, to be sure our high-tech age has enabled more people to stay in touch with family and friends around the world. I understand that. And we have become empowered to express ourselves and discover information on our own using the web. All good things. From email to blogs to posting pictures, we are more connected than ever before. I'm just convinced we have fewer relationships than ever before. I'm just convinced our heart no longer aches for the other. This hour of worship just might be the closest you will be to a living, breathing person all week because there's no time or desire to look into the eyes of another because it has really turned out to be all about me. Time magazine confirmed it. I am the person of the year.

In the early 1500s, Nicholas Copernicus was a Polish astronomer who put forth a radical theory that rocked both the scientific and theological worlds. He said that the sun and not the earth was the center of the universe. The earth was just one of many small planets circling a larger heavenly body. Everyone gasped. The implications were enormous. Suddenly, we were not the center of the universe. Suddenly, the sun and moon didn't rise and fall on me. Suddenly I was so very insignificant.

The church fought him on theological reasons. "We are the pinnacle of creation, designed in the image of God. How dare you," the priests said. Science fought him on empirical reasons. "We are the top of the food chain and called to have dominion." But Copernicus held his ground and literally put us in our place, causing not only a stir but a revolution.

In his book, It's Not About Me, Max Lucado coins a phrase that might be helpful in light of Time's Person of the Year. Max Lucado says that we need a "Copernican shift" of the heart. It's not about me. It's about the one who created me. It is for his purpose and His glory that we have our life and breath and being. Luther called for us to die daily in our baptism and to remember that it is not about me but about Christ who dwells in me through faith. And if it were left to Luther, he said, he would bring it all to ruin. Paul put it this way, "Whatever you do in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him" (Colossians 3:17).

Epiphany shows us how to get over ourselves and have this Copernicus revolution of the heart. We follow the journey of the magi across the desert. It is a journey that slows us down long enough to put away the cell phones and turn off the computer to see that I didn't put the stars in their courses, I didn't dictate the rise of the tides, I didn't maneuver the earth around the sun, and I certainly didn't strap on a cross for someone else.

It is in the quiet journey of Epiphany that Paul's words suddenly come to us as a surprise. There is a plan, a secret plan laid out from the foundations of the earth that has not been carried out through Jesus. A plan that reveals God's special favor and mighty powers for you.

That's when the message of Epiphany finally takes us by surprise. That the one who put the stars in their places and commanded the tides to rise and fall would be born in a barn, reduced to a baby, suffer insults, beatings, and a cross until He descended into the very pit of hell. Why would He do such a thing?

Because it really is "all about you." He did it just for you. In Jesus' heart — you are not the person of the year. You are the person for all eternity. That's why He did it all. Because of His favor to you. It's His plan for you from the foundations of the earth come true in Jesus. It is all about you. All glory be to God our Father.

Assistant Pastor Curt Peterson
Your Call Committee has completed many phone interviews with Pastor candidates, and has started including council members on video teleconferences with the most promising pastors.

Now that we are at least seeing pastors faces, it is all feeling much more like a spiritual journey than a paperwork maze.

Please continue praying for us, we very easily may have already met our new pastor, or maybe he is the next one.

We finished the year (on paper) some $6,000 ahead of where we started. However, considering the fact that we were not paying a Pastor’s salary and benefits for 8 months, and even though we transferred some of that to savings, there was still some $23,700 that stayed in the general fund. If you factor that in, we would be negative in the general fund. However, all things considered, I think we did an excellent job with the funds that God gave us.

We were able to save in a number of critical areas and avoided large infrastructure failures that set us back in previous years. We used the funds saved by not paying a pastor to offset finance charges for our property insurance. In April, I engaged a firm to audit our utility bills, to see where we could save on taxes. Their findings saved us over $500 so far after paying their fee. You also did a tremendous job on managing our electricity usage, keeping us some $1,700 under budget. Please take the time to look at the December Treasurer’s report in the Members section of our website. The report shows all areas of budgeted expense.

We have a number of challenges ahead of us in the coming year. I plan to ask the council to consider refinancing our mortgage and take out the funds so badly needed for roofs, carpeting and other infrastructure needs. It’s about time we address the major recommendations presented by the property committee several years ago. As you know, we have addressed some of the recommendations we could with the funds available. However, when you have a group which dedicated so much time to outline where we should be extending our efforts, it’s no wonder they are discouraged with the inactivity and inattention. It’s time to get creative instead of falling back on the age old excuse “we don’t have the money”.

As of this newsletter, the council has approved a budget proposal which I will present at our Annual Congregation meeting on February 26th. This ended up being a surplus budget only because we are not paying a full time pastor’s salary and benefits. However, if we are to prepare ourselves for a new pastor, then we must make the commitment to fully fund the proposed budget.

I will be out of the office from January 28th thru February 11 and then again February 19 thru the 24th. I have asked Faye Schill to help with the books during my absence, as I have been finding it extremely difficult to maintain any resemblance of organization and being overwhelmed when I return. Faye and I will be in training mode for the next few weeks to get her up to speed on paying bills and Power Church. Faye has been a blessing to us since taking over when Bobbi Yantz left, and has organized and trained a great team of counters.

As always, if you have any questions, complaints or suggestions, please don’t hesitate to contact me and I’ll do my best to answer.

Yours in Christ

We Worship

Altar Guild

Our Altar Guild is a wonderful ministry to be involved in. It is not just a clean up, but it is a preparation and continuation of our worship of our Lord. Preparation is covered in prayer and a biblical presentation of how we setup the altar. I will be providing a training session in January. If you are interested, please call the office 321-727-3131. We will also establish the team and who to call as the lead for this ministry.

Acolytes

A valuable service to the Lord is our acolytes. As new people come to Peace, we should make available the training for their participation in our services.

Audio Multi-media

It is time to record our messages. Forming and Audio and Sound team to operate the sound system and ensure our audio recordings are of the highest quality. If you are open to learning sound systems and recording the services, and preparing them for broadcast, contact the office and let Pastor know or our administrator.

Video Multi-media

TLC needed for our Video Multimedia system. Looking toward 2017 and how we can reach others with podcasting and video services to bring to shut-ins as well and promote Peace. The pan-Tilt mechanism needs some care. We can then provide training for those who are called to the Video Multimedia Ministry.
We Learn

Children’s Church

One of the rewarding gifts of working with elementary children is experiencing their unconditional love of God and family. In February the commercial world sends us the message that buying gifts of chocolates, flowers, jewelry, cards, planning special outings and dinners shows our love for one another. These gifts are truly appreciated expressions, but just last for a short time. Our Children's Church lessons will be focusing on scriptures and lessons that help students know that God's love is everlasting and can be expressed freely everyday.

We will be continuing with the challenge of : (What can I do for Jesus?) this month.

February 5, 2017- Matthew 5:13-16-We should by our "saltiness" point others to Jesus, the living water

February 12, 2017-Mark 12:30-31-Loving God, loving each other

February 19, 2017-Mark 2:3-5-Doing our part to bring others to Jesus

February 26, 2017-Matthew 17:1-9 -God confirms that Jesus is his Son.

Even the youngest among us can demonstrate God's love to others by: sharing Bible stories, praising our Lord in music and song, treating friends and family with kindness, obeying our parents and teachers, being a friend to a friendless child, inviting a friend to church, helping a neighbor and countless others ways to show God's love.

Families will be able share God's love by attending our Lenten activities at Peace Lutheran Church. Lenten Season will begin with a pancake supper on Tuesday evening February 28th. Ash Wednesday service will be on March 1st. Each following Wednesday there will be a soup and sandwich dinner followed by a devotional message in small groups for all ages of the congregation. This is a wonderful opportunity to invite other friends and family to join us for dinner and devotions.

Mark your calendars we're looking forward to seeing you participate in this meaningful family time.

Respectfully submitted,

Henrietta Pellecchia

Youth Group

Every 2nd Sunday of the month, the Youth Group does a Car Wash during the early service, as a fundraiser for different youth events throughout the year.

The next car wash is on February 12, 2017.

Thank you for all your support!
We began January 2017 continuing to work on the My Style Badge, which we hope to finish up soon.

Some of our scouts and their families are preparing to attend the Tipisa Native American Weekend Camping event February 3-5th, with the Boy Scouts at Camp La-No-Che. We will make Valentine cards and learn the history of Valentine’s Day before having our own Valentine’s Party. We will also prepare for a March camping trip by learning about fishing.

Again, we thank the Peace Lutheran Congregation for opening your home and hearts to us and keeping our troop in your prayers. Our Troop meets in the Fellowship Hall on Tuesday nights at 6:30pm. Anyone who is interested in more information may contact us at AHGFL1776@aol.com.

We wish many blessings to our Peace Lutheran Church family!

Panera Pick-Up

Please sign up for the Panera pick up.
We pick up every Friday night at 9:25pm at the Hammock Landings.

FOOD AND FELLOWSHIP

The Food Ministry can be a rewarding ministry to all who are called to help feed people. It’s not just about handing out food or feeding those who are hungry. It’s about what Jesus does when people who are hungry, come because of a need. The opportunity to be the hands and feet of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

At Peace, we have many opportunities to participate in the Food Ministry. One of the ways can be after each service or event, we can offer a time of fellowship around food. It is where we meet and greet many people. Invite someone to have fellowship with you and make a friend.

Food Pantry News

Thank you to all who have contributed by volunteering, attending and donating to the many fantastic fund-raisers organized by Charlene O’Brien. Please remember your continued participation and generosity with these fundraisers, is what allows us to continue to help our community. Do you have a fundraising idea? We would love to hear it.

This month marks the 3 year anniversary of our partnership with Second Harvest, and we continue to purchase all non-perishables from their Melbourne Warehouse. Three years ago this month we gave 6,000lbs of food out. This past December, we dispensed almost 15,000lbs of food to over 1,200 people. With our busier months just ahead of us.

In December, several volunteers participated in the Second Harvest and WESH 2 news food drive. This event and our participation, allowed us to receive over 6,000 pounds of food at no cost. Saving the pantry more than $1,000!

In the past several months, our ministry has received assistance from seven different Ministries in our local community. To witness these different organizations coming together in many ways to unite for our cause, has been a true blessing. On behalf of myself and all our volunteers, thank you for the opportunity to serve.

Did you know?

Instead of writing multiple checks for individual contributions like the Children’s Hunger Project, the Food Pantry, the GAP, etc., you only have to write one check. Simply designate the breakdown of your giving in the check’s memo area or on the envelope itself. “FP” for Food Pantry, “CHP” for Children’s Hunger Project, “GAP” for the Gap, and so on.

Thank you for your contributions!

Car Wash

The youth does a Car Wash as a fundraiser the 2nd Sunday of every month during the early service (9:30 AM) in the back parking lot. You can get your car cleaned and support the youth at the same time!

Blue Grass Gospel Jam every 2nd Sunday of the month, at the Peace Place!

All Acoustic Musicians—bring your banjo, fiddle, guitar, dobro, harp, uke, harmonica, bass and your voice and join us!

Next Gospel Jam is on: February 12th at 4:00PM.

Please be sensitive to the members of our congregation with this condition avoid using scented products before coming to church. Thank you for keeping Peace a scent-free facility.

Children’s Hunger Project

The Children’s Hunger Project distributes food to students on weekends in an effort to eliminate the growing problem of childhood hunger in our communities. They currently deliver about 1,200 packages of food monthly to participating schools. Please keep them in your prayers, and thank you in advance for your donations.

Remember, no child has to go hungry

Our Food Pantry is always in need of donations of either food or financial donations to support this much needed ministry. Our community is flooded with people looking for help, and we are grateful that as a church, we can help meet the need, anyway we can. Your generous donations will allow us to continue to help them and together, we can see our community get stronger!

Our pantry is open on:
Tuesday’s—9AM -11AM and Thursday’s—5PM -7PM
We service zip codes 32905 and 32907 only at this time.
